

Great East Japan Earthquake of March 11th, 2011

Child Rescue, Adults' Responsibility

Language: Japanese (with English translation)

Panelists:

Fumio Yonekawa

Komatsushima Kodomo-no-ie (A short-term treatment facility for children with emotional disturbance), Director, Sendai
- First and Continuing Aid for Children in the Great East Japan Earthquake -

Seth Aronson

Faculty member, William Alanson White Institute
President, William Alanson White Psychoanalytic Society
- A leader of Psychological Child Aid New York following 9/11 -

Discussants:

- Kazuki Nishiura: Psychological first aid - a view from Europe
Professor; Department of Developmental and Clinical Studies, Miyagi Gakuin Women's University;
Visiting Professor, Linköping University, Sweden
- Shiori Usami: A perspective from the vantage point of psychiatric nursing
Professor, Graduate School of Health Science, Kumamoto University, Kumamoto
- Masahiro Nishikawa: From the perspective of a provider of Psychological Aid
Associate Professor, International Christian University, member of the IASCP Task Force of Mutual-and-Child-Aid, Tokyo
- Seisuke Nakamura: A view from a distance in Japan - the role of press reporting
Executive Director, Fukuoka Kasuga City Culture Circle; former newspaper journalist in Fukuoka

Organizer:

- Hidefumi Kotani
Director, Institute for Advanced Studies of Clinical Psychology (IASCP)
International Christian University, Tokyo, Japan.

Date: Friday, July 15th, 2011

Time: 10:00-14:00

Venue: ICU, Administration Building Room 206

Fee: Free

For further details, please use the following contact information:
Institute for Advanced Studies of Clinical Psychology (IASCP),
International Christian University,
3-10-2 Osawa, Mitaka-shi, Tokyo 181-8585. Tel: 0422-33-3655